INT - VAN RIDE HOME

Claire and Parker have both been kicked out of summer camp for completely different reasons. They have not previously been friends.

PARKER

This is so lame. Boys and girls can talk to each other. It's not a crime. Have you ever had a boyfriend at camp?

CLAIRE

Once.

PARKER

Sarah was just jealous. She needs to get a life and worry about college.

CLAIRE

How do you think Dennis knew I had a cell phone?

PARKER

So your dad died. What was that like?

CLAIRE

I don't know. Doesn't seem real.

PARKER

I never knew anybody that died.

CLAIRE

Well, I grew up in a funeral home, so I was always around it.

PARKER

Ok. Was that completely weird?!

CLAIRE

Yes.

PARKER

My dad's a big shot at Disney.

CLAIRE

Really? Why don't you go to private school?

PARKER

He divorced my mom a long time ago. He likes his new family better. He won't give my mom alimony, so we're really poor.

CLAIRE

Whoa. I'm sorry.

PARKER

I'm kidding! My mom gets killer alimony.
I just keep getting kicked out of private schools.

CLAIRE

(laughs)

I thought you were like this little overachiever, like little Miss Perfect.

PARKER

Good. That's what I want people to think.

CLAIRE

When in reality you're like this compulsive liar/danger flirt.

PARKER

I thought you were like this Goth arty freak girl who was like tragic and dark.

CLAIRE

Oh that's so not who I am.

PARKER

Nobody's ever who they seem to be.

CLAIRE

Nobody interesting.
