

I'm Bored ...

- A I'm bored ...
- B Wanna play tic tac toe?
- A No, that's dumb. Baby game.
- B Wanna play cards?
- A No, that's boring. Cards are for old people.
- B Cards are for everybody.
- A Everybody old and boring.
- B Wanna go for a walk?
- A Where to?
- B I don't know. Maybe the park. Get some fresh air?
- A Why? So we can walk all around the park in circles and look at a bunch of stupid trees?
- B No. So we can get a little exercise.
- A I'll pass.
- B Okay, how about a word game? Wanna play hangman?
- A What?
- B I asked if you want to play hangman.
- A Are you kidding me?
- B No. Why?
- A That's a game from like a hundred, thousand, million years ago.
- B So what?

- A Abraham Lincoln probably played hangman when he was our age.
- B Maybe that's why he was so smart.
- A How do you know he was so smart?
- B Because he never complained about being bored.